

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2497 - HB 2574

February 28, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Changes from 15 calendar days to 21 calendar days, the number of days an interested party has to file an appeal from an agency decision to the Appeals Tribunal and from the Appeals Tribunal to the Board of Review in regards to unemployment insurance cases.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Other Fiscal Impact:

Increase Federal Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Expenditures - Not Significant/Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund

Estimate assumes:

- claimants will have more time to appeal a decision increasing the amount of unemployment insurance benefit overpayments in some cases.
- the Department of Labor and Workforce Development will have additional administrative costs for collecting such overpayments.
- all unemployment insurance administrative expenditures in the Department are federally funded.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
